

Special, Limited Time Offer:
Up to 35% discount off the list price of the combination of selected HP Integrity
servers, Windows Server, and SQL Server

From June 1 until October 31, 2009, when you purchase Microsoft Windows Server for Itanium-Based Systems and Microsoft SQL Server Enterprise Edition from HP, or from HP through an HP distributor, together with one of the selected Integrity servers you will receive the significant savings of a 100% credit on the price for SQL Server Enterprise Edition. This is up to 35% off the HP list price of the server, operating system, and database combination. The selected servers are HP Integrity Superdome, rx8640, and rx7640 servers.

Microsoft SQL Server Enterprise Edition on HP Integrity servers delivers a proven, highly scalable and available database platform for mission critical transaction processing and business intelligence. For many years, financial institutions, health care providers, on-line service and entertainment companies, as well as discriminating manufacturers, all with demanding requirements for reliable performance at industry standard prices, have calculated that SQL Server on Integrity yields the right return on investment. That return on investment just got even better with this limited time offer.

For more information, contact your HP sales representative or distributor.

This offer is valid only when the Integrity server, Windows OS, and SQL are sourced through HP, regardless of whether they are purchased directly from HP or from HP through an HP distributor.
